Helwig Recreation Center/Carlson Locker Room

Finished in the fall of 2006, the Helwig Recreation Center is a state-of-the-art fitness and athletic facility. It houses two hardwood courts, thirty-five yards of synthetic grass surface, a 200-meter indoor running track, batting cages, a 5,000 square-foot weight facility, a two-level fitness area, four classrooms, thirteen offices, and a fully equipped athletic training area. The Men’s Soccer locker room, which was remodeled in 2010, offers more locker space and a team meeting area for game breakdown.

Holmgren Athletic Complex

Completed in 2004, this complex is among North Park’s most functional and heavily used facilities. The complex is home to the men’s soccer team and is designed for both practice and play for recreational and intercollegiate use. The field features a state-of-the-art, injury-reducing artificial turf system, new bleachers, and a press box. Field lighting enables the complex to be used into the evening hours, providing more flexibility in programming.
Student Athletes at North Park

Our philosophy clearly identifies and develops high caliber students. We foster an atmosphere of academic excellence that allows our students the chance to pursue a multitude of options after graduation.

For the fifth consecutive time in the last six years, the Men’s Soccer team was honored with the National Soccer Coaches Association of America “Team Academic Award” for achieving an overall grade point average of 3.2 in the 2010-2011 academic year.

Our Mission

The mission of North Park, as an intentionally Christian university of the Evangelical Covenant Church, is to prepare students for lives of significance and service through liberal arts, professional, and theological education.

Our vision, building on our core institutional identity — Christian, urban, multicultural — is to fashion a university of uncommon character and enduring excellence where faith and learning meet.

Leadership through Service

Through both campus and private organizations, on the local and national level, our student athletes recognize the need to give back to their community and constituencies.

Members of the Vikings’ athletic department and the Student Athlete Advisory Council sponsor “Viking Kids Day”, hosting underprivileged local youth at our home athletic events, as well as providing tutoring and mentorship.

The Student Athlete Advisory Council and the CHAMPS/Lifeskills program nominate Viking athletes for the NCAA National Leadership Conference.

The Men’s soccer team has also taken part in numerous service projects over the years. The team has volunteered their time and resources at the Greater Chicago Food Depository, Swedish Covenant Hospital, North Park Christmas Toy Drive, Shoes For Africa and many other events and organizations.
A History of Success

Our men’s basketball team has gained national attention by being crowned NCAA Division III national champions five times. Only four other NCAA basketball programs in any division have matched that level of success.

Our baseball program has won five CCIW titles and competed in five NCAA National Tournaments. They also have several players holding positions in the NCAA record books for career and single season statistical accomplishments.

Men’s soccer, football, basketball, and baseball have had over 50 players sign professional contracts after their Viking careers. Most recently, men’s soccer player Isaac Lee signed and played in the Korean professional league, and baseball player Mike Giovenco, signed with the Kansas City Royals’ minor league system.

Our women’s rowing team has earned gold, silver and bronze medals in their first three years of competition at the prestigious Dad Vail Regatta.

A Bright Future

Our present accomplishments are just as considerable. Today, we continue to garner national attention in a number of sports, and we are poised to continue the winning Viking tradition.

Our men’s soccer team won CCIW titles in 2004, 2005, 2006, and 2010, competed in the NCAA National Tournament in 2005, 2006, and 2010, and have been nationally ranked in 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, and 2010. The team has won over 10 games the past eight years in a row. They have had 52 All-CCIW players since 1999, 26 All-Region selections and six All-Americans.
By Kevin Shepke

Quite a 2010 season, but what else do you expect from the North Park men’s soccer team?

Now in his 13th year as the head men’s soccer coach at North Park, John Born has prepared this year’s Vikings team as a preseason favorite to win the conference again. Could this be the year NP finally pushes through and reaches a new level?

“We have very high expectations for this team,” Born said. “I think we have the talent and the depth to go very far this season.”

From the six First Team All-CCIW selections last year, North Park returns all but two of them for the 2011 season. Leading that group will be senior Kris Grahn, who was named the CCIW Player of the Year and earned D3Soccer.com All-American honors. He led the team and the conference in points, game-winning goals, and was second in goals scored, and assists. Joining Grahn will be senior Sehten Hills, who tied for the team lead in goals scored and was second in goals per game average.

For most of the season last year North Park was ranked in the NCAA Central Region rankings thanks to the stellar play of Grahn and Hills, but also from the contributions of sophomore Filip Lindmark, who earned his First Team All-CCIW selection by leading the team and the conference in assists per game. Junior goalkeeper, Tim Ahlberg turned in one of the most impressive performances in recent North Park soccer history. Ahlberg allowed less than a goal per game and made 95 saves for just under an 84 percent save average.

“If we come together and stay healthy, this will be a special team,” Born said. “We have added size, skill and speed this year with the addition of 25 first year players. There will be great competition for playing time. The hard part will be to try and find the correct combination and to have this group come together in such a short time-frame.”

North Park’s schedule will also be one of the toughest. The Vikings open with Aurora University, but then come home to take on NCAA Division III power Dominican University, a squad which reached the NCAA Final Four in 2009 and has three Elite Eight appearances in the last eight years as well as nine straight NCAA tournament appearances. In addition, North Park will face nationally-ranked UW-Whitewater, a team it defeated 2-1 on an overtime goal from Grahn last season when the Warhawks were ranked No. 6 in the country, and UW-Oshkosh, a squad which reached the Final Four of the NCAA Division III National Tournament last season.

The CCIW schedule boasts some tough challenges as well, including a match-up with Wheaton College October 8 in Wheaton, in a rematch from last year’s CCIW tournament title game where the Vikings earned a 3-2 victory. Along with North Park, the Thunder is picked to tie atop the CCIW standings.

“Every year our number one goal is to win the highly competitive CCIW,” Born said. “This year is no different.”
John Born, Head Coach

Viking Soccer Head Coach John Born enters his 13th year at North Park. Prior to coaching the Vikings, Born served four years as the Head Men's Coach at Milwaukee School of Engineering. Born took over a North Park team that before his arrival had won only one game in 1998. Under his direction, the program has had 12 consecutive winning seasons, captured four CCIW titles, achieved regional rankings in 2001-2010 and was ranked nationally in 2005-2010. He has coached 52 All-CCIW players, 23 All-Region selections and six All-Americans. His players have also had the distinct honor of being selected "North Park Athlete of the Year" six times under his tenure.

Off the field, his teams have had great success in the classroom as well. For five of the past six years, the National Soccer Coaches Association has recognized and honored North Park with the "Team Academic Award," given to athletic teams that have a cumulative grade point average over 3.0.

The Vikings’ five game improvement, in Born’s first year at North Park, represented the sixth biggest leap of any Division III soccer program in the nation. In 2001, the Vikings came within a game of capturing their first-ever CCIW title. In 2002, the North Park men went undefeated in a preseason trip to Sweden, where they faced top Swedish clubs. In 2004, the Vikings exploded to the top and finally won their first championship, ending Wheaton College’s string of nine straight CCIW titles.

Born’s overall coaching record entering the 2011 season is 154-107-26, his North Park record is 125-71-19. He has been named Coach of the Year in the CCIW (2004, 2005 and 2010) and the Lake Michigan Conference (1996).

At Milwaukee School of Engineering, Born showed his ability to lift a program from the depths. Born started at MSOE with a team that finished 1-12-1 in his first season, and steadily built the program. Displaying marked improvement over a four year stretch, Born’s 1998 team posted a 13-5-2 record in his final season at MSOE.

Prior to becoming a head coach, Born earned a Bachelor’s degree from Concordia University of Wisconsin and a Master of Science degree from the University of Richmond. While playing on a nationally ranked NAIA team at Concordia, Born was honored as a team captain, team MVP, All-Lake Michigan Conference, NSCAA All-Midwest Region, and an NSCAA All-American Scholar Athlete.

In addition to his college coaching experience, Born has coached at the club and high school level and continues to work various summer camps throughout the country. Outside of coaching he has many other responsibilities within the athletic department, as he is also the Associate Athletic Director at North Park and an adjunct professor in the Exercise and Sport Department. He has served on the NCAA Soccer Selection Committee from 2007-2009 and was selected as a facilitator for the NCAA National Leadership Conference in 2002, 2005, 2006 and 2009. He and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Chicago.
Tomasz Bednarek, Graduate Assistant

Bednarek begins his second year as an assistant coach and first year as the graduate assistant for the Vikings. His primary responsibility is to train the goalkeepers and organize the defense.

As a player, Bednarek served as the team captain for his regional u13, u14, u15 and u16 teams in Poland. He led his team to a second place finish in the Michalowicz Cup, a third place finish in the Kuchar Cup and a national finals appearance in the Deyna Cup. He has been coaching PNA Soccer Academy since 2008. He and his wife, Viola reside in Chicago.

Greg Domanico, Assistant Coach

Domanico enters his first year as an assistant coach for the Vikings after a successful playing career where he was a starting defender for two straight seasons. A four-year letter winner, Domanico was also a three-time Academic All-CCIW selection and served as the team’s captain his junior and senior years. In May of 2011, he was honored as North Park’s “Male Sportsperson of the Year” at the annual Senior Awards Ceremony.

Steve Karceski, Assistant Coach

Karceski enters his second season as an assistant. He was a three-year letter winner for North Park, playing the defensive midfield position. He helped lead the team to a 2006 CCIW championship and earned CCIW Academic All-Conference honors in 2007 and 2008. He was also the recipient of the 2007 CCIW Jack Swartz Academic Award. Karceski is a native of Rockford, Ill. and a graduate of Rockford Boylan High School.

Joey Swenson, Assistant Coach/Team Chaplain

Swenson enters his third season with the Vikings. He started in the midfield for the Nyack College Warriors from 1999-2002. After college Swenson played and was team captain of F.C. United in Ecuador from 2004-2009. Swenson coached the men’s varsity team at Alliance Academy International in Quito Ecuador from 2003-2009. Joey is in his third year at North Park Seminary and hopes to return to South America to be involved with sports ministries.

Alumnus of the Year: Greger Svensson

When it comes to soccer and life, few have had the competitive drive, work-rate and spirit of Greger Svensson.

Said Coach John Born, “I have been around a lot of players over the years, and I don’t believe I’ve seen a more intense and aggressive person on the field. However, once Greger steps off the field he is incredibly calm, generous and humble.”

There is no coincidence that the arrival of Greger Svensson to North Park in 2000, also coincides with the incredible improvement of the men’s soccer program. His honors were numerous: 3-time Team MVP, 3-time All-CCIW, 2-time NSCAA All-Region, 2-time Team Captain, 2003 NPU Senior Athlete of The Year, 3-time Academic All-CCIW and a member of the Dean’s List. In October of 2011, he will be inducted into the North Park Hall of Fame, only the second men’s soccer player to receive that honor.

Since his playing days as a midfield/forward on the 2000-2002 teams, Svensson married his beautiful wife Kristina (’2001) in 2003. They moved to Minnesota to be closer to Kristina’s family in 2005. He currently works as a private banking relationship manager at US Bank in downtown Minneapolis and has two children, Ebba and Knoa.

When Greger isn’t playing or watching soccer, he’s very active in competing in triathlons, running marathons and playing tennis.

The Svensson family is also very involved in their community as they go to the Church of the Open Door in Maple Grove. Greger is also a board member with the Neighborhood Housing Services in North Minneapolis and has been since 2009. Additionally he owns and operates Snap Valet, a valet business he bought in the spring of 2010.

“When Greger was playing for North Park he had a great combination of talent and drive, which is what made him so successful. He has brought that same type of approach to the next stage in his life and is the personification of a North Park Viking.” Coach John Born
